MILD-MODERATE PARAPROFESSIONAL

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY:

I am a twenty-seven-year-old man who enjoys writing, reading, and helping others. One of the things I strive for is doing my best in everything I do, especially challenges. One of the hardest things I've had to do is working towards my Bachelor's degree, but with support and a strong effort, I've managed to make it to the end proudly and successfully. One of the things I enjoy most is working with elementary students as a paraprofessional. I can honestly say that the best part of my job is when I see students happy and ready to learn.
